

February 8, 2011

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Stokes Lawrence Throws With Grant Thornton

(Seattle, Washington) A group of Stokes Lawrence attorneys recently accepted a challenge from CPAs at Grant Thornton LLP for a friendly wager on a darts competition—loser had to make a donation to the winner’s charity of choice.

It was a fun evening of competition and camaraderie at the Washington Athletic Club in downtown Seattle. The night ended with Grant Thornton garnering the high score. Stokes Lawrence was pleased to make a $1,000 contribution to Grant Thornton’s chosen charity, Food Lifeline.

Stokes Lawrence is a team of experienced, ethical and accessible attorneys who deliver quality results. We value fresh legal thinking and practical solutions. For over 25 years this approach has helped us develop lasting relationships with our clients and our community. Please learn more about us at www.stokeslaw.com.

Grant Thornton is a global organization of independent firms providing personalized audit, tax and advisory services to public and private clients in more than 100 countries. Our local team was proud to join our friends at Stokes Lawrence for this great event that will benefit our entire community. Please visit us at www.GrantThornton.com.

Grant Thornton Partner, Neil Beaton, and Stokes Lawrence Managing Shareholder, Kelly Noonan

###